

AST Hires Jeffrey Cohen as Executive Vice President of AST Equity Plan Solutions

NEW YORK, November 5, 2015 – The AST Group announced today that Jeffrey Cohen has joined the company as Executive Vice President of its Equity Plan Solutions (EPS) division. As a key member of AST’s management team, Cohen will oversee the EPS group and be responsible for designing and implementing strategic plans aimed at the continued growth of the business.

EPS provides a host of specialized products and services designed to meet the stock plan administration needs of businesses worldwide. Currently serving more than 750,000 plan participants in 70 countries, EPS is a key component of AST’s comprehensive service offering for clients and employee shareowners around the globe.

“We are very pleased to have Jeff join the company,” said Chris Terenzi, Executive Vice President of Asset Management for AST. “His leadership and expertise across all facets of the employee plan business will bring enormous value to our associates and the clients we serve.”

Cohen joins AST with over 15 years of experience in the employee plan business. He has a track record of success with Computershare and BNY Mellon, including his most recent role as Managing Director of Product Strategy and Management. He has also served as the Managing Director of Relationship Management and has been the lead manager of two major stock plan business integrations.

“AST has a dynamic, growing business,” said Cohen. “I look forward to building on such a strong foundation and providing even greater value to our customers across North America.”

Jeff is an active member of the Global Equity Organization and serves on the National Association of Stock Plan Professionals Executive Advisory Committee.
